GREENVILLE ZOO TO HOST ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Special event features free ice cream and face painting

Greenville, S.C. – Children can enjoy a frozen treat at the Greenville Zoo's Ice Cream Social on Friday, July 25 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. The zoo will offer a choice between an ice cream bowl and a toppings station or a variety of other ice cream treats. The ice cream is free with zoo admission. Once their sweet tooth has been satisfied, children can visit the free face-painting station and try out the Greenville Road Warriors' slapshot cage.

"It's a fun opportunity for families to come out and cool off in the zoo," said Jeff Bullock, Greenville Zoo Director.

The Ice Cream Social at the Greenville Zoo is sponsored by Pepsi.

About the Greenville Zoo

Accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums (AZA), the Greenville Zoo is rated one of the best tourist attractions in South Carolina, attracting over 270,000 people annually. Operated by the City of Greenville, the 14-acre facility features wildlife from around the world, including orangutans, giraffes, monkeys and giant tortoises. Visitors can also enjoy one of the zoo's most popular exhibits, the Reptile Building, which is home to a variety of lizards, frogs, turtles and snakes.
